Will Keep Eyes on Men.

Superior, Wis.—Several girls of this city have formed a girls' protective association. It is a sort of love trust. Its purpose is to keep tab on young men of the city. They will keep each other informed as to actions of the men and protect members of the society from attentions of any youth against whom there is the slightest breath of suspicion. If a member hears of any young man falling by the wayside she immediately reports to the rest. That young fellow is thereafter tabooed. On the contrary, if a young man shows signs of reformation this also is noted. He is correspondingly encouraged. The discovery of the organization has created quite a furore among young men of the city. All are wondering how they stand on the books of the society.

Sharp-Jordan.

A very pretty society event occurred in Trinity Church, Frost, on Wednesday evening, August 28, 1907, at 8.15 P. M. when Aaron A. Sharp and Miss Odesa P. Jordan were joined in the bonds of Holy Wedlock, by Rev. O. B. Sharp, officiating minister.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Sharp, and is a highly respected young man, and a successful teacher in our public schools. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Jordan, and is a young lady of very amiable disposition, and pure and noble character. The bride was tastefully dressed in white organdie, and the groom wore the conventional black. They were escorted by A. L. Dilly, as best man, and Miss Clara H. Jordan, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. After the ceremony, they repaired to the home of the bride, where a bounteous repast was served to about 50 guests.

The bride was the recipient of a number of useful and valuable presents. The happy couple started for Jamestown and other points, the next morning, followed by the train of their many friends.

On the evening of Monday September 26, 1927, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Annie Warwick, in Marlinton, Claude Leon Gaujot, of Huntington, and Miss Eula Hill Warwick, of Greenbank, were united in marriage. The officiating minister was Rev. S. R. Neel, pastor of the Marlinton Methodist Church.

The bride is a daughter of Forrest H. and Bertie Nottingham Warwick. She is a bright, promising young lady. For three years she taught at Green Bank, and this year she is teaching the Curry School, near Dunmore. She and Mrs. Gaujot met while she was going to school at Marshall College. Mr. Gaujot is from a well known family of Mingo county; his father was a mining engineer, and the second mayor of the city of Williamson; his mother a Miss Flourney, of Virginia. He was in the World War, serving over seas in France with the A. E. F. His home is now in Huntington; he is assistant sales manager for the Missouri Paint and Varnish Company.

Those desiring a knowledge of instrumental music, will be pleased to learn that Miss Lillie Overholt, so well known here for her rare-musical accomplishments, will take charge of that department.

Again the wedding bells are ringing and we are called to chronicle the marriage of Mr. Romulus C. Loveridge, of Renick's Valley, and Miss Laura Conrad, of Philadelaphia, which took place at the residence of Mr. Preston Clark on the 2nd inst. Quite a number of the friends of the contracting parties were present, and all realized a good time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. S. Sydenstricker. The happy couple have our best wishes.

MARRIED THREE BIRDS.

The wife of a lawyer in West Virginia has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was Robins, her second husband was Sparrow, and the third one a Quail. There are two young Robins, one Sparrow, and three Quails in the family. One grandfather was a Swan and another a Jay, but he's dead now and a bird of paradise. They live on Hawk Avenue, Eagleville, Canary Island, and the fellow who wrote this is a Lyre and a member of the family.

RETURNED.

Fifty-four years after leaving Clarksburg, W. Va., L. W. Grimsley, 78 years old, returned with a comfortable fortune and found his wife waiting for him. Grimsley left Clarksburg in 1866 and went to Fort Smith, Ark., where he engaged in stock raising and the mercantile business. His wife did not know where he had gone and had given him up as dead.

Frederick Wilmer Ruckman and Miss Alice Brooks Thaw were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Thaw, at Rich-

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.
Yates Downman, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, of the city, the bride's pastor. The house was prettily arranged for the occasion in palms, ferns and roses with lighted candles on the mantels. The bride wore a soft white gown hand-embroidered, with a white picture hat, and a bouquet of bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Mary Randolph Thaw, wore a frock of pale blue messaline and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. James H.
Price, of Richmond, attended the bridegroom as his best man. Miss Clara Allen Tompkins played the wedding march,
and during the ceremony softly rendered
"Melody of Love."

Mr. Ruckman is a son of the late Matews Ruckman, of Seebert, and is a young lawyer of fine ability. He was building up an elegant practice in Richmond when called home to look after his father's interests in this county upon the latter's death. The bride is a fair type of the southern beauty and has a host of friends in the mother state. Mr. and Mrs. Ruck-man are now on a tour of the northern cities and upon their return will make their home at Seebert.

Rev. George P. Moore will preach at Seebert Sunday, June 18th, in the M. E.
Church, South at 11 a. m. He will also make an address before the Sunday School at 8 p. m.

Howard C. Bangs and two allies went to Lewisburg, Wednesday evening, June 7th, Rev. D. P. McGeehy, pastor of the bride, performing the ceremony. The groom is a son of the venerable Urie
Hevener, of Greenbank, and is a prom-

Robert Morton Steele and Miss Mamie Beckett were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Beckett, at Pickaway, Monroe county, Wednesday, June 14th, Rev. B. P. Pennington, of Princeton, officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, only the members of the families of the contracting parties and their intimate friends being present. The happy couple left for Roncerverte, after congratulations were extended, where they took the train for Niagara Falls, and points on the Great Lakes and in Canada on their honeymoon. Of the young couple the Monroe Watchman says:

The bride is a cultured young lady of charming personality and lovable as well for the graces of her character. She is a graduate of Marshall College and one of the State's most valued teachers, connected for several years with Marlinton High School. The groom is a native of Tazewell Co., Va., but has grown to manhood in Monroe. He too has made the record of a highly successful teacher and is one of the county's most progressive and public spirited young farmers. Indeed, this marriage seems ideal and their friends invoke Heaven's smile upon the union of these gentle hearts.

Surprised Their Friends.

Their friends here were much surprised Wednesday morning to learn that Michael E. Pue and Miss Nannie P. Kinsey were married the evening before, (Tuesday, Sept. 5th) at the Methodist parsonage in Ronceverte. The happy couple started immediately on a two weeks' bridal tour of northern cities. On their return they will reside in Marlinton.

Mr. Pue is well known in this county having resided in the county for anumber of years. For about three years he has made his home in Marlinton. He is General Agent for the Columbia National Life Insurance Co. for West Virginia. The bride lives in Philadelphia and has been here on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Norman R. Price. Herold-Lockridge.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the Presbyterian church at Humesville Monday evening. Stephen and Alice, both of Humesville, were united in matrimony by Rev. A. B. Hackett. The church was beautifully decorated with spruce and potted plants. A large number were witnesses of the ceremony. Miss Jewetta Harold, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Maude Harold was best man. The ring service was used with Miss Maude Harold being ring bearer. The ribbon girls were Misses Maude Oliver, Gladys Poling, Maude Louie, Nellie Harold, Jennie McComb, Opal McComb, Kathleen Carey and Lucie McGowan. After the ceremony a reception was held and supper was served to fifty or sixty invited guests at the home of the bride's parents. The happy couple left that night on a two week's trip through Virginia.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Harold, of Mill Gap, Va., and a very promising young man. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lockridge, and a lady of many accomplishments. We extend congratulations.

Surprised Their Friends

Their friends here were much surprised Monday morning to learn that Michael and Miss Hannie E. Kinsey were in the evening before (Tuesday).

Thanks for the Wess.

At this late date we want to acknowledge receipt of two brown Leghorns sent us about three months since by A. Page Day, of Celebration, Va. He also sent at that time a number of the same breed but the latter was dead when he arrived. There was no reduction in the selling rate, however, and we learn that the same rate is charged on dead chickens as on live ones. One of the hens has been laying every day since then and has laid about eight dozen eggs. The other hen laid about three weeks and then died in setting. We borrowed foreign eggs which we intended to pay back when the Democrats get in full control of the government and that article falls in price to about ten cents a dozen. In due season of time twelve of the eggs hatched. The chicks are now about two months old, all are in fine healthy condition and old "Giddy" has not lost a one. The entire cost of feed has been less than $1.00 and the neighbors' chickens have consumed a good portion of that.

MAN WHO KEPT UP 2 HOMES

When His Wives Met After Eight Years There Was a Lot of Trouble.

Newark, N. J.—Thomas Schwint, thirty-two years old, admitted that he has had two wives since January, 1903, when he married the second, who was Miss Josephine Pfister. The first, by whom he had four children, he married in 1898.

Schwint told Judge Hahn that after his second marriage he returned to the home of his first wife. When the second wife demanded his presence in her home he informed wife No. 1 he was going on a hunting trip. When he wanted an excuse to return to wife No. 1 he announced to the second Mrs. Schwint his departure on a fishing trip. When the two wives finally met the doubler was arrested on complaint of No. 2.

Married at the residence of Porter Kellison, on Stoney creek on Wednesday Feb. 1st Owen W. Kellison and Miss Charlotte Beverage, daughter of the late Jacob Beverage, G. S. Weiford officiating minister. The bridal attendants were Mr. Amos Beverage and Miss Bessie Vanreenen. Immediately after the ceremony they repaired to the dining room and much enjoyed the bountiful dinner that had been prepared for the occasion. We bespeak for these young people all the happiness that married life implies.

Moss is from Monroe county, his home being on Second creek. He says he married wife number two last Christmas while she contends they have been married three years. We understand he has begun divorce proceedings from his first wife charging her with desertion. The more serious charge of bigamy cannot be brought against him in this state.

...the death of the man was received with much sadness at the lumber plant. He was conductor on the logging train which operates between the lumber plant and the log camp west of the city.

The exact details of how the conductor sustained the injuries could not be learned but it is reported that he was working on his train at the time. Both legs were badly crushed and the bones were protruding from the flesh. He was hurried to the hospital yesterday afternoon and only lived a few hours.

The health of the people is very good. The mumps have about run their course and no danger exists whatever from them.

Howard Beverage is visiting home folks at present. He has been employed by Warn Lumber Co. for quite a while and will return to his labor in a few days.

Charles and Emmett Galford have the contract to do the skidding for Smythe Bros. on the Duffield job.

John Duffield and Wm. Hefner will leave in a few days for Cincinnati to learn the barber trade.

Jimmy Duffield will go to Texas this summer to be a cowboy.

James L. Sheets was in this section a few days ago buying timber.

Uncle Billy Hannah has been visiting in this neighborhood for several days. He is 84 years old and is still able to walk several miles each day.

Roy Vanueenan is working for Am Barlow nowadays.

Ames Beverage is having good luck raising lambs this year. Two sets of triplets have been born in his flock so far.

Grant Duncan has bought a half interest in the Lightning Lumber Co. and has employed James Burgess as foreman.

Willie Vanreenan will go to Knoxville, Tenn., this summer to learn telegraphy.

Porter Kellison will help Garrett and Colerider take their cattle to Harrison county next week.

Allen Gay was in this section from Marlinton a few days ago and purchased a mule from Mrs. Beverage to ride on a prospecting trip through Webster and Nicholas counties this spring.

Uriah Beverage has the record of wintering the best bunch of two-year old cattle in this section this winter and they are in good condition now for butchering.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Vanreenan will go to Greenbrier county on a visit soon.

The El Rey Sisters handsomely costumed and themselves naturally pretty gave the greatest exhibition of fancy and trick roller skating ever seen here. From the graceful beginning to the sensational finish there is not a moment's intermission or dullness.—Cincinnati Times Star.

A pretty marriage was solemnized at the Marlinton Hotel, on Tuesday afternoon, at 8:45. The contracting parties being Mr. Claude W. Auldridge, son of Mr. Luther Auldridge, and Miss Mollie M. Hogsett, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Kenny Hogsett. They are both popular young people, and of the best families of Marvin Chapel neighborhood. Rev. A. M. Cackley performed the ceremony. The bridal party consisted of Mr. Lanty Hogsett and Miss Anna Hogsett, brother and sister of the bride, Mr. Dennis Ruckman and Miss Nina Auldridge sister of the groom. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for the east. They will make their home in the community where they were brought up. Their many friends wish for them a happy life.

Birdie M. Lambert, both of Greenbank, this county, Rev. Jno. A. Gere Shipley officiating.

Forrest Clark has resigned his position with the Merchants Grocer Co., of Alderson, and is now at his home at Renick. He will leave Monday for Morgantown where he will enter the University.

Earl Gibson, who has been working for C. J. Richardson through the summer, returned to his home in Kansas Tuesday. Unless he returns here next spring the Marlinton ball team will be badly crippled.

Mr. and Mrs. Page Malcomb went to Savannah, Greenbrier county, Tuesday morning to visit Mrs. Malcomb's mother. They were accompanied by little Gertrude Wilks and expect to be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Andrews, of Lewisburg, spent yesterday in Marlinton. Mr. Andrews formerly clerked in A. Harrison's store here and has many friends here who were glad to see him again. This is his first visit here since he left four years ago.

F. R. Hunter has returned from the Sweet Chalybeate Springs whither he has been for several months for the benefit of his health. We understand his health has so far recovered that he will soon be able to resume his position in the Bank of Marlinton.

Sharp-Jordan.

A very pretty society event occurred in Trinity Church, Frost, on Wednesday evening, August 28, 1907, at 8.15 P. M. when Aaron A. Sharp and Miss Odessa P. Jordan were joined in the bonds of Holy Wedlock, by Rev. O. B. Sharp, officiating minister.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Sharp, and is a highly respected young man, and a successful teacher in our public schools. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Jordan, and is a young lady of very amiable disposition, and pure and noble character. The bride was tastefully dressed in white organdie, and the groom wore the conventional black. They were escorted by A. L. Dilly, as best man, and Miss Clara H. Jordan, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. After the ceremony, they repaired to the home of the bride, where a bounteous repast was served to about 50 guests.

The bride was the recipient of a number of useful and valuable presents. The happy couple started for Jamestown and other points, the next morning, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.
